

October is Pastor Appreciation Month, and we wish to recognize and express our thanks and appreciation to our two pastors here at Trinity.

Brother Joe Eason has served as Senior Pastor since the church's beginning in 1975. We have been greatly blessed through his preaching and Bible teaching as well as benefiting from his counseling and encouragement. He and Mrs. Nancy have led us by example with their willingness to minister to more than just our spiritual needs.

Brother Bob Creech has served as our Youth Pastor since 2013. He also oversees our Sunday School and Children's Ministries. He works tirelessly to provide many opportunities for spiritual growth among our youth as well as many activities for Christian Fellowship. Bob and Mrs. Fran are great examples for our youth.

We love and appreciate them greatly!
