

Message from our Pastor

As we leave 2022 and enter 2023, our year ahead will present us with many challenges and opportunities to serve the Lord and His Church. The past three years have been filled with challenges that have tested our faith and our resolve to be relevant in a world of great uncertainties but through the difficult times of these years you, the Trinity Church family, have met these challenges with great faith and commitment. The year ahead threatens the Church with cultural, financial, social, political, and religious challenges, as well as many others. How will we be able to rise to meet these?

There are five things we MUST resolve to do!

- 1 — Prayer! Do not underestimate the power of prayer!
- 2 — Worship! Worship God individually and corporately!
- 3 — Serve! Take seriously the exercise of your God-given gifts in serving HIM.
- 4 — When faced with a choice, choose the Church over the world.
- 5 — Stand up, speak up, and show up when your Lord expects you to! HE will prompt you by HIS Spirit!

Make these things a definitive part of your DAILY walk with God! The Church can...in this age of lukewarmness, indifference, and outright rebellion against God...make a huge difference. You have done so in the past...continue in the faith!
