

Focus on the Hospitality Ministry

Our Ushers and Greeters make up a very important part of the ministries of Trinity. They are the first people you meet as you enter the building on Sunday morning.

Jimmie Lou Cook is the leader of our Greeters at Trinity. These special people are there to welcome you and answer any questions you may have regarding location of Sunday School classrooms, restroom facilities, or Sanctuary. They also thank you for being with us as you exit the building. The Greeters wish to make your Sunday morning worship experience a pleasant one and let you know that your presence is welcome – whether you are a regular attendee or a visitor.

Danny Carver is the head of our Ushers. The ushers also welcome you and make sure you have a Sunday bulletin. They will also take you to a Sunday School class if you are a visitor. The Ushers also help you find a seat in the sanctuary and collect the morning offering.

Our desire is to make sure that every person who attends services at Trinity feels welcome and ready to receive a blessing while worshipping with us.
